

APA INTERGOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS
DIVISION PROGRAM AND BUSINESS MEETING
MONDAY, APRIL 26, AT THE APA NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Location: The Division's 2004 Program and Business Meeting will be held during the time of the National APA Conference in Washington, DC, at the Childe Harold Restaurant, The Lord Byron Room, third floor, 5:30 to 8:30 PM, Monday, April 26. Horsd'oeuvres (finger food) and beverages will be served, compliments of the Division. If desired, you can also get a full meal in other parts of the restaurant. The Childe Harold Restaurant is three blocks down Connecticut Avenue from the Washington Hilton headquarters hotel---a 10 minute walk. The address of the restaurant is 1610 20th Street, NW. It is 50 to 100 feet off of Connecticut Avenue across a small triangular park-like open space. It is also 100 yards from the north escalator entrance to the Dupont Circle Red Line Metro Station. The restaurant's telephone number is: (202) 483-6700.

Agenda for Program and Business Meeting: In general, our meeting will focus around four subjects:

- A Report on How we Did in the Divisions' First, Very-recently Completed Performance Review.
- Possible new Program Development.
- A Review of Proposed Mission Statement Amendments, and Review/Approval of FY 2005 Work Program and Budget.
- Other Items of Interest to Assembled Members.

Specific Subject-Matters on the Agenda Include: Review of our performance review and Division Council assessment, review of newsletters and the future, the Web-site including pertinent integration with Division member Tom Christoffel's recent innovation—"The Regional Community News," a possible division member questionnaire, the development of a possible Intergovernmental Smart Growth paper, our two by-right sessions at the 2005 San Francisco APA National Conference, discussion of proposed Mission Statement amendments, review and approval of the proposed FY 2005 Work Program and Budget, next date for Division elections, and possible by-laws.
